

Kidspiration

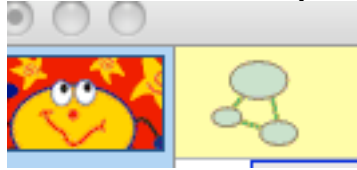

1. Every button on this program will talk to you.
*Great for lower grades and your ELL students
2. Go to writing: type in a sentence

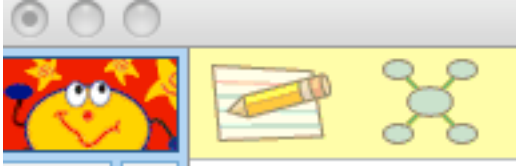

3. click on the ear and click on the beginning of your sentence. It will read the sentence to you.

4. click on this symbol on tool bar

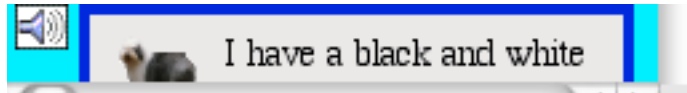

it will take you where you can make a web or simply add a picture for your sentence. Click symbol with pencil and it will take you back to the writing page

5. Place mouse over any symbol on tool bar and the computer will read it to you.
6. To add SOUND: Go to Top tool bar and click on sound you can record your voice reading the sentence.

7. A voice symbol will appear before the sentence where you can click and listen to it.
8. On top tool bar click on Goodies and you can change background color, writing paper line colors and spell check.
9. Click the paper symbol that says add idea will simply give you another writing box

10. One fun program that I found fun for the first day of school. Go to main page and click on Reading and Writing.

11.

click on All About Me.

12. add pictures and text.

13. Then click on writing symbol to add more text

14. Students can read it to the class with the help of the computer.