

What does “educational innovation” mean to you? In what ways is Kihei Charter School currently engaged in educational innovation?

The Coalition of Essential Schools (CES) shares a common set of beliefs including personalized instruction to address individual needs and interests.

List three strategies KCS is current using to meet this goal.

The Coalition of Essential Schools (CES) shares a common set of beliefs including multiple assessments based on performance of authentic tasks.

List three strategies KCS is current using to meet this goal.

The Coalition of Essential Schools (CES) shares a common set of beliefs including close partnerships with the school's community.

List three strategies KCS is current using to meet this goal.

The Mission Statement of Kihei Charter School is ...
To conceptualize, organize, and build innovative learning environments with custom designed educational programs that will prepare students for a satisfying and productive life in the 21st Century.

Give your definition of “a satisfying and productive life in the 21st Century.”

What does “school choice” mean to you? How can the concept of “school choice” serve as a foundation for school improvement?

The Coalition of Essential Schools (CES) shares a common set of beliefs including classrooms where teachers and student know each other well and work in an atmosphere of trust and high expectations.

List three strategies KCS is current using to meet this goal.

The Coalition of Essential Schools (CES) shares a common set of beliefs including democratic and equitable school policies and practice.

List three strategies KCS is current using to meet this goal.

The Mission Statement of Kihei Charter School is ...
To conceptualize, organize, and build innovative learning environments with custom designed educational programs that will prepare students for a satisfying and productive life in the 21st Century.

Give your definition of “to conceptualize, organize, and build innovative learning environments.”

The Mission Statement of Kihei Charter School is ...
To conceptualize, organize, and build innovative learning environments with custom designed educational programs that will prepare students for a satisfying and productive life in the 21st Century.

Give your definition of “custom designed educational programs.”

The students of Kihei Charter School believe that:
creativity and positive risk taking should be encouraged.

How is KCS currently achieving this goal?

What could KCS do this year to better meet this goal?

The students of Kihei Charter School believe that:
changing technologies should be used as learning tools, as well as subjects for study.

How is KCS currently achieving this goal?

What could KCS do this year to better meet this goal?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Information Skills.

What does information skills mean to you?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Thinking and Problem Skills.

What does thinking and problem solving skills mean to you?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Self-Direction Skills.

What does self-direction skills mean to you?

The students of Kihei Charter School believe that:
communication skills are vital.

How is KCS currently achieving this goal?

What could KCS do this year to better meet this goal?

The students of Kihei Charter School believe that:
students must be prepared to enter the work force or another educational environment.

How is KCS currently achieving this goal?

What could KCS do this year to better meet this goal?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Communication Skills.

What does communication skills mean to you?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Interpersonal Skills.

What does interpersonal skills mean to you?

Kihei Charter School embraces The 21st Century Skills including Global Awareness.

What does global awareness mean to you?